LET EVERY CHILD OWN TREE

Many Reasons Why Its Possession
Exerts a Beneficent Influence on
Period of Adolescence.

Every child should own a tree. A tree is a symbol of life. It lives. It stands for everything that is noble. It is rooted in the soil and stretches itself toward heaven. It stands for patience, humility, persistence, beauty, courage and God. The child should plant the tree himself and thereafter watch it grow year by year. He should put his hands on its rough bark and say: "This is my tree. I will stand by it, and live up to it."

It is curious how blind we sometimes are to certain ideals because we can not see or handle them. We need something to compare us with the invisible. Let him go leavethink and formulate some of our feelings, but on another will come force, make self-evident in a few days. So we gain knowledge, measure by shadow.

There is something about the silent beauty of a tree that casts over us a spell of calmness and mystery. Therefore let me say and think our children the more and unluckily resemble us, the more we ought to hold on to them. They will come to us, make self-evident in a few days. So we gain knowledge, measure by shadow.
